

Utica Police Department

Press Release

Brief Description of Incident: The Utica Police are asking the public's help in identifying these suspects. These men worked separately and as a group to steal X-box games and gaming accessories from BJ's Wholesale Club. This group would use the children (there are two in the stroller) to hide items underneath, inside the stroller. If you know any of these suspects please call (315) 223-3552 or (315) 223-3500.

Units/ Departments Involved:

Utica Police Criminal Investigation Division

All crimes described in this press release are allegations, and suspects named are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.